

AASU Department of Art, Music and Theatre

The transcript evaluation will determine if student has met the content requirements of the following courses.

Professional Education Courses:

EDUC 6000 – Professional Orientation to Teaching
EDUC 6100 – Technology Applications for Teachers

Requires Admission to the College of Education

EDUC 6200 – Curriculum, Instruction and Assessment
EDUC 6300 – Educating Students with Disabilities in the General Education Classroom

Professional Art Education Courses

Specialized Content Courses

ARTS 5400G – Art in Elementary Grades
ARTS 5410G – Art in the Middle and Secondary Grades
ARTS 5430G – Technology in Art Education
ARTS 5500G – Curriculum and Methods in Art Education

Internship

ARTS 6750 – Graduate Internship

Related Studio Art Courses

Student transcripts must also show evidence of a variety of studio art and art history courses similar to the following AASU courses as follows or student will need to take the equivalent courses on the undergraduate or graduate level as part of this program of study:

ARTS 1020 – 2D Design
ARTS 1030 – 3D Design
ARTS 1010 – Drawing I
ARTS 2011 – Painting I
ARTS 2400 – Introduction to Photography
ARTS 2150 – The Computer in Art
ARTS 2400 – Introduction to Craft
ARTS 3300 – Ceramics I
ARTS 3400 – Printmaking I
ARTS 3700 – Figure Sculpture, ARTS 3330 – Ceramic Sculpture, or other sculpture class

Art History Courses

ARTS 2710 – Art History I
ARTS 2720 – Art History II
ARTS 5750U or ARTS 5750G – Contemporary Art History and Criticism